

GIL READ MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Parent/Guardian Information:
 - Parents or legal guardians must submit separate applications for each child;
 - Proof of income, including applicant’s name and address, MUST accompany the application. Please include a copy of your most recent T451E (Notice of Assessment). We will accept other forms of proof of income such as three consecutive pay stubs; ODSP (Ontario Disability Support Program); or Ontario Works.

2. Child/Youth Information:
 - If you still require more funding for sport, and have requested the maximum limit for this application, there are other grants you can apply for including Kidsport, Jumpstart, or Their Opportunity.

3. SPORT INFORMATION
 - If available, please attach a copy of the registration form for the sport.

4. FUNDING REQUEST
 - An applicant may receive a grant for equipment and/or registration fees to recognized sport organization with qualified instructors/coaches;

5. ENDORSEMENT (LETTER REQUIRED)
(SECTION TO BE COMPLETED BY ENDORSER)
 - Each GIL READ MEMORIAL FOUNDATION application must have the endorsement of a third party who knows the family, excluding a relative or friend. Examples of the endorser can include a community professional such as a member of the Clergy, Police, School Counselor, Teacher or Principal, Senior Recreation Administrator, or Family/Social Services Professional.
 - Your role of endorser is critical to the effective operation of GIL READ MEMORIAL FOUNDATION. As an objective third party, you must provide a letter that assesses the needs of this child/youth. Please keep in mind that your endorsement letter provides the only reference, so be as specific as possible with respect to the financial and social barriers of the individual.
